教學目標與內容	This course aims to further improve students' reading and oral discussion abilities with the hope to elevate students' understanding of some current and/or important issues around the world. Thus, this is not just an English reading or discussion class, but rather a course that aims to use English as a tool to improve students' understanding of the world around them. For this semester, the class will continue what has accomplished in last semester and focus on issues such as language, people, business, cross-cultural communications and many more. Class will be conducted half in English and half in Chinese. Key words and key concepts will be repeated in Chinese for students to remember and understand. Students are expected to actively participate in all group discussions in class and ask questions if there is any.
