教目與內	The aim of this course is to strengthen English oral communication skills of non-native English speakers. English speaking and listening skills are enhanced through learning opportunities derived from audio and visual learning aides, textbook and personal interactions with classmates and the teacher. Because of the high level of student participation required in this class, faithful class attendance is vital to a student's success. Students missing more than 3 days of class, and those frequently tardy should not expect to pass this class. Grades will be calculated as follows: 40% Attendance, 10% Homework, 10 % Participation (in-class work), 10% Midterm Exam, 30% Final Exam
