教學目標與內容	This course aims to help learners develop listening skills and strategies essential to effective communication while integrating speaking and pronunciation skills. The material Listen In uses a task-based and learner-centered approach to give learners the opportunity to practice listening and speaking in a variety of real-life situations. This course offers: (A) More Listening Opportunities: Real-life listening practice , Starter Unit giving learners an introduction to essential listening skills, and Student Audio CD , with related listening tasks, allowing learners the opportunity to practice listening skills outside the classroom. (B) More Language Support: Clear unit structure ensuring that learners have the language and opportunities to communicate effectively and with confidence. Guided end-of-unit tasks for pairs and small groups, allowing for meaningful practice of language and skills. In Focus section in each unit, providing opportunities for cultural comparison and personalization. Language Summaries and Listening Skills Index at the back of book, for easy reference.
