教學目標與內容	This is a required course for non-English freshmen. The main goal of this course is to provide English language learners with a comprehensive set of communication skills in natural and authentic contexts. This course is especially intended for those who have passive knowledge of grammar and vocabulary from previous study, but lack the skills and confidence to participate in conversation. The focus is on listening and speaking proficiency. The material chosen for this course is a book with the title 'Voyages'. This book motivates learners to become involved in their own language learning by providing practical, real-life situations that learners can apply to their everyday lives. It is designed to reduce learner anxiety and promote language acquisition via learner participation in purposeful interaction and extended discourse.
