教學目標與	This reading course is designed for intermediate beginning English as a Foreign Language students who can develop their reading ability both individually and in panel discussion. The course is versatile. It can help students develop their grammar structure and vocabulary; it can also provide guidance and practice in reading skill. Students spend time reading, not just doing exercises about reading. The course is conducive to individual, pair, and group work. The textbook can be used complementarily with other single-skill textbooks or as a reading supplement to multi-skill textbooks. Those activities also provide opportunities to incorporate listening, speaking, and writing into the classroom, allowing for a whole language approach using reading as the pivot.
