科目簡介(含課程大綱及教學進度)：
This course is intended to introduce students to the basic concepts of culture and identity, and encourage them to use these concepts in their daily life to obtain both a deeper insight into relations with cultural others, and a reflexive understanding of the factors which shape their own sense of identity. The course textbook provides a variety of exercises designed to develop students' general English abilities while at the same time introducing important topics in Cross-cultural communication. This will be supplemented by a variety of additional material (provided in class) to give students a grounding of the common concepts of culture, ethnicity and identity used in the social sciences, in particularly sociology, cultural anthropology and cultural studies.
Week 1 Orientation
Week 2-3 Conceptions of Culture and Identity
Week 4-5 Greetings and Introductions
